

RICHMOND GERMAN CLUB WILL HOLD FINAL DANCE

Closes Its Season To-Night With Brilliant Function at Jefferson.

MRS. BULL TO ADDRESS CLUB

Will Talk to Fashionable Gathering on "Artists I Have Known"—Betrothal Reception of Miss Marion Wallerstein To-Night.

The leading society event of to-day will be the last dance of the Richmond German Club, which will be held in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel this evening. A great many guests from a distance will attend this function, and it will be the one of the most beautiful given by the club this season. Colonel J. Lane Stern will lead the dancing with Miss Annie Cleveland.

Mrs. Bull at the Club.

Another notable gathering of smart society will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Woman's Club, when Mrs. George J. Bull, of Paris, will address the club members and their guests on "Artists I Have Known." The lecture promises to be an unusually interesting one, and the club parlors will be thronged during the afternoon to hear Mrs. Bull.

On Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock an informal musicale will be given at the club by Miss Myrtle Redford, pianist, and Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt, violinist. A charming program has been arranged and tea will be served later in the afternoon. Members are asked to note the change of hour for the afternoon functions at the club from 4:30 to 5 o'clock.

Return to Richmond.

Colonel and Mrs. Henry Lee Valentine have returned to the city after having spent the winter in New York.
Miss Katherine Valentine, their daughter, who is a student at "Foxcroft," is also spending Easter with her parents at their home on South Third Street.

Among the younger set from Woodberry Forest School, who are spending Easter at home here, are John Gordon Wallace, Braxton Valentine, Wymond Cabell, Osborne Jones, Churchill Young, Jr., and Lockhart Bonnie. These young men are members of the graduating class for 1914-15.

Concert in Ginter Park.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club of Ginter Park will be held in the residence of Mrs. Norman Call on Seminary Avenue on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Call is chairman of the affair and is entertaining the club at this beautiful musicale. A splendid program has been arranged, which will be rendered by some of the leading artists of Richmond. Mrs.
George Bethell, soprano, will sing, accompanied by Shepherd Webb, and Mrs.
Frank W. Duke will give a number of violin selections.

Betrothal Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wallerstein will be at home this evening, after 5:30 o'clock, in honor of their daughter, Miss Marion Wallerstein, whose engagement to Seymour A. Woolner, of Peoria, Ill., was recently announced.

Birthday Party.

The home of Mrs. G. B. Cooke, 11 West Clay Street, was the scene of a pretty entertainment Thursday afternoon, when her little daughter, Elizabeth, celebrated her tenth birthday. Music and games were enjoyed by the children, after which they were invited to the dining-room, where refreshments were served. The color scheme was white and yellow, and in the center of the table was a large yellow favor cake, from which the children drew the Easter bunny or an egg. Among those present were: Misses Alice Noble, Mildred Savage, Evelyn Coleman, Virginia Jackson, Lillian Arnold and Annie Macdonald, of Washington; Masters Cabell Bonney, John Ray, Robert Hull, Jr., James Quarles, Cabell Phillips, Rex

AMUSEMENTS

About the Theaters.

Until the latter part of the week the Academy of Music will be dark, but then—gentlemen, hush! Beginning Thursday, Honey Boy Hotchkiss and his Helms Minstrels will enter upon an engagement at that playhouse that seems destined to mark a veritable epoch in the world's history of minstrelsy. Think of 'em and count 'em—thirty-five! Before the dazzling elugence of this organization of luminaries, the dim glory of Dockstader, Edith Wilson, Primrose, O'Brien and all the rest will pale into a candlelit haze.

But meanwhile we have with us:
The Bijou, where the Grayce Scott Company will present all the week a play in which the star of the company, at least, should achieve a triumph.
"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." It would be hard to imagine a part more perfectly adapted to Miss Scott's personality than that of the cheerful little Rebecca.

The Lyric, where what is modestly called by the management "popular vaudeville" is offered three times a day. Although Ethel Green, a genuine comedianne, as many of us happily remember, is the headliner for the first half of the week, there is another act that better had be good, to use the expressive language of the street. We're talking about that clown seal, Daniel Josephus. Manager Rex has announced this amphibian no less than four times. Now he's coming at last, and if he proves to be phony, an electric seal, or anything like that, we'll wreck his tank.

The Strand, where, for the first three days of the week, Marguerite Clark may be seen in the screen production, "Pretoria Green." Everybody knows that in Gretchen Green the simplest, most casual words bind men and women in matrimony, without license or priest, and it is easy to see how pretty a story may be built around Marguerite Clark in "Pretoria Green." As a special added attraction, a vaudeville quartet, known as the Variety Four, will sing at each performance.

The Superior, where George Kleine's superb photoplay, "Antony and Cleopatra," will be exhibited for the first half of the week. "Superior" is not too strong a word to apply to this

AT POINT OF DEATH FROM WOUND
HE CLAIMS IS ACCIDENTAL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HARRISONBURG, VA., April 4.—
With the chances against his recovery, Jacob Stroop, Jr., a young man of Singers' Glen, is lying at the point of death in the Rockingham Memorial Hospital, in Harrisonburg, with a bullet wound in his abdomen. Stroop had been in bad health for a long time, and on Friday afternoon the report of a rifle shot was heard from his room. He told those who rushed to his assistance that it was an accident.
He was driven in a vehicle twelve miles across the country to Harrisonburg, where an operation was performed. The bullet perforated his intestines twelve times, lodging in the small of his back.

ALLEGED YEGGMEN
ARE UNDER ARREST

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Two men suspected of having robbed the post-office at Basic City two weeks ago, have been landed in the Harrisonburg jail by local officers, acting at the instance of Post-Office Inspector Armstrong, of Charlottesville, who is investigating a series of robberies in the valley within recent months. One of the men, Michael Nolan, about fifty-five years old, carries a pensioner's certificate from the United States government, and he says that he was injured by the explosion of a shell on board the battleship Indiana in 1898, just at the outbreak of the Spanish-American War. He is a cripple, and says that he has been in Richmond for about seventeen years. Upon entering a separate cell here, he warned his companion not to talk. The companion calls himself Billy McBryde.
He is about twenty-one years old.

CHASE CITY HARD HIT BY EASTER STORM

Telephone System Is Put Out of Commission, and Town Is Left In Darkness.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHASE CITY, April 4.—The snowstorm of yesterday demoralized telephone and telegraph communication both in and out of this city, and all the telephones in the local exchange except about fifty were put out of commission. Wire and poles are down all over the city and the electric light plant is closed. Total darkness prevailed last night, and it is unlikely that there will be any electric lights before Tuesday night. Trains on this branch have been run without orders and several hours late.

Damage by the storm seems to be confined to the telephone and telegraph lines, and there being no day current on yesterday, no live wires were encountered.

Snow fell to a depth of seven inches yesterday and the night before, having begun about 9 o'clock Friday night.
To-day it has melted fast and by tomorrow probably will disappear.

The Chamber of Commerce at a called meeting held on Friday night decided to raise $500 in this city to go toward the improvement of the road leading out Fifth Street through Charlotte County to Randolph. The road is now in fine condition except for about two miles near Barnesville. This link will cost, engineers have estimated, about $1,500. The Charlotte road board and citizens of Charlotte County will raise half and Chase City the other half, and it is believed the completion of this road will mean a great deal to this city, as in the winter time this two miles of bad road has kept many people away from the city who ordinarily would come here to do their trading. This is the nearest market and the nearest railroad center to the southern part of Charlotte County, and there is quite a friendly feeling between these people and the business interests of Chase City.

Many of these are marked at very special prices, and if your size is among them we feel sure that a real bargain awaits you in a new Spring Gown.

There are several features about our dressmaking service that appeal to the woman who desires to be up-to-the-minute in style.

In the first place, our styles are all very, very new.

Miss Freeland makes frequent trips to the style centers, and is in constant touch with the latest ideas in dress coming from abroad or brought out in this country.

Models and styles that suit in one place might not be adapted for another.

Here is where the skill and genius of the dressmaker is displayed.

To take the so-called radical ideas and so transform and arrange them as to conform to the dress standards of the women to whom she is catering is quite an art.

And it is in this respect we believe our Dressmaking Department excels.
We have made such a complete study of the requirements of Richmond people that we believe we are in a better position than anybody else to fill these needs.

Miss Freeland will be only too of your gown.
